THE STORY OF THE “5550”

In 2012, MCC received a letter from a gentlemen named Ed Cousin, living in New York. In the letter, Cousin explained that in 1988 he bought an old cottage in Brantingham Lake, NY that was built in 1892. As he was cleaning he found some vintage clubs, bags and other various items. Among the things he found was a small score card. Upon examination of the card, Cousin discovered it was from the Missoula Country Club. Cousin was generous enough to mail it to us. Last Fall, we found this letter in a box of documents. The card dated back to the 1920's and the original publisher was the Missoulian. It also perfectly represented the original nine holes of the club.

The original logo was located on the front, along with the club's original phone number.

That number was “5550”.
